

This covered treading place of the 18th century (one or two horses treading the harvest) has been restored, closed in the Norman style and transformed into habitation.

Single room of 45 sq.m with exposed timbers, wood frame and thatch. Bar and large fireplace. Double bed, LCD TV, kitchen (ceramic hob, oven, refrigerator, microwave, dishwasher). Shower and toilet. Pellet stove and auxiliary radiators. Washing machine and dryer in free access (common laundry). Garden table and chairs, deck chairs and barbecue.